Details:

This stunning property is located in a quiet and secure neighborhood in Tampa. The single family home is directly next to a golf course and one of the small lakes which are typical for the region.

The two-story building features four luxurious bedrooms (one of them with a fireplace), five bathrooms, an office and a bonus room. Next to an eating space in the wooden kitchen, there are a separate breakfast room and a dining room which is kept open towards the living room. Furthermore you will find a library, a comfortable living room and a bright family room including a fireplace.

The exterior features are a three car garage, an outdoor kitchen and grill, a wide terrace and a garden with oak trees. The highlight of this property is the winter garden with its big luxurious pool.
